

Content Depot: How to Subscribe to Live Broadcasts

- Log in to Content Depot at <https://contentdepot.prss.org>
- Search for live broadcast you are looking to subscribe to and select it.
- Once correct program is selected, you arrive at the 'Detail' section for that program:
 - Click the subscribe button in the top right hand corner. (If you do not see a 'subscribe' button, make sure you have the appropriate permissions enabled on your Content Depot login!)
- Next:
 1. Make sure that 'Intent to Air' is selected
 2. Select the frequency as "One Time Only" and the Date/Time that the program will air
 3. Next select the appropriate Pro Audio port settings.

The screenshot shows the 'Detail' page for 'Carnegie Hall LIVE: Opening Night Gala'. The interface includes an 'Instructions' panel, a 'Subscription' section, a 'Local Schedule' section, and an 'Information' panel. Three red circles highlight key areas: 1. The 'Content Usage' section where 'Intent to Air' is selected. 2. The 'Local Schedule' section where 'Frequency' is set to 'One Time Only' and a date/time is entered. 3. A table for selecting Pro Audio ports.

Hour	Active	Pro Audio 1				Pro Audio 2
Carnegie Hall LIVE: Opening Night Gala		1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4

- Click the blue "Subscribe" in the bottom right corner.
- You are now subscribed the program, and the feed should begin automatically at its scheduled time!
